

“Hello and welcome to the Mitchell Spearman Golf Academy at Doral Arrowwood.”

About Mitchell

A native of Great Britain, Mitchell is recognized as one of the top golf instructors in the industry. After competing on the European PGA Tour, Mitchell discovered the art of teaching golf under the guidance of David Leadbetter. As David’s chief lieutenant for over ten years, he became Director of Instruction for the DLGA worldwide. Mitchell is well known for having an eye that sees what the golfer needs to do in order to improve their swing and hence hit better golf shots. His client list is unmatched, and he has created a niche in the marketplace for golfers who want quick and lasting results. From multiple victories for his business clients at the famed Pebble Beach Pro-Am. He also travels to PGA Tour, and European PGA Tour events working with past and present clients such as Greg Norman, Nick Faldo, Alex Rocha, Tom Watson, Ian Baker-Finch, David Duval, Laura Davies and Jan Stephenson to name a few.

Look out for Mitchell on ESPN (Cold Pizza), the Golf Channel and XFM Satellite radio. See Mitchell on Golfing World a new TV show airing worldwide. Also check out Mitchell’s Golf App to help fix your game: Golf’s Faults and Fixes.

The one-on one training program that his coaches receive is unique and creates a standard of instruction that is unparalleled. The continuous guidance that Mitchell gives will ensure that you will receive top class instruction.

INSTRUCTION

OUR APPROACH to teaching golf consists of a refreshing and proven formula that Mitchell has refined throughout his career on the practice tee. As opposed to the common golf school cliché of breaking down your swing into bits and pieces, Mitchell and his staff work with each student on bringing out the best in them and allowing them to effectively “own their swing” with a simpler understanding of what to focus on. This unique style that we offer ensures that you can have fun while still having a detailed plan for continuous improvement.

So if your swing needs a touch up or you are looking to get to that next level, we have a selection of programs that will be right for you. The Spearman trained and certified golf professionals will work with Mitchell’s proven techniques to quickly produce lasting results in your game.

The academy uses the latest technology in golf analysis software that allows the student to quickly understand what to focus on. With this instant feedback style, the students can’t help but improve
